

Thursday January 20

in Washington DC, Los Angeles, &

San Francisco – gather Civic Center, 5pm

Tell Bush on his Inauguration:

Stop the War – Fight the Right!

- Bring the Troops Home Now! End Occupation, from Iraq & Palestine to Haiti, Afghanistan and everywhere!
- Stand Against Racism at Home and Abroad!
- Money for Jobs, Healthcare, Schools – Not for the Pentagon War Machine!
- Save Social Security! Defend Workers' Rights!
- Defend Roe v. Wade & Women's Reproductive Rights!
- Equal Marriage Rights for All!
- Stop the Attacks on Immigrant and Civil Rights!

As Bush takes the oath of office for his second presidential term on January 20, 2005, thousands of people will protest Bush's war and right-wing agenda. As he rides his limousine down Pennsylvania Ave., he and the world will hear opposition from people in the U.S. loud and clear.

Bush intends to continue the occupation of Iraq indefinitely, and unlimited support for Israel's war against the Palestinian people. He is determined to maintain U.S. occupation and aggression against Cuba, Haiti, Afghanistan, Korea, the Philippines, Sudan, Iran, Syria, Venezuela, Colombia, and other countries.

Meanwhile the right-wing has been emboldened and attacks at home are increasing—on women and reproductive rights, on immigrants and people of color, on equal marriage rights and the LGBT community, on education, the right to healthcare, social security and workers' rights. We cannot win any of these struggles in isolation. But together we are more powerful than Bush, the Pentagon and Corporate America. Join us on Jan. 20—Unite to Fight the Right!

Initiated by the A.N.S.W.E.R. Coalition (Act Now to Stop War & End Racism)

For more info or to get involved: 415-821-6545 • answer@actionsf.org • www.actionsf.org

For a list over 4,000 endorsers, go to www.ANSWERCoalition.org